

The Patton Museum, Fort Knox, Kentucky will be commemorating a milestone in its long existence when it presents The Patton Museum 60th Anniversary Celebration on the weekend of May 30-31, 2009.

An authentic battle reenactment depicting an engagement between U.S. and German forces at the end of World War II will be the highlight of each day's activities along with reenactors in period uniforms, historic military vehicles and equipment displays from different periods of U.S. military history.

Please mark the dates and make plans to attend this entertaining and educational experience the whole family will enjoy. Times for the event on Saturday are 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. and Sunday 12:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. and admission is free. The Patton Museum is located off U.S. Highway 31 at Fort Knox. Look for the signs for parking.
